

May 2017 P&C News Wrap

- New Secretary Amy Conti welcomed and thanked for coming on board.
- Uniform Shop – Tammee Lynn has resigned from the Uniform Shop effective 24th May, as she moves on to a new job! Very exciting for her, and as a result we now have a vacancy for a new Manager. It is a paid position and requires around 7 hours a week. There will be considerable handover, fully supported with a fabulous team of volunteers. Please email melvillepsandc@gmail.com to express interest.
- Junior Block reopening – Wednesday 10th May at 1pm, we need some volunteers to help move furniture, resources and music equipment back to their rooms. At 2.30pm the entire school will assemble by the flagpole for a small ceremony and picnic to celebrate. Please email the P&C if you can help, we also need some bakers per each class and fruit choppers.
- Disco – Get excited, it is all systems go for the 26th May. The flyers will go to students this week and tickets must be purchased before the 19th May.
- Canteen – Thanks to the volunteers, Sally and Liana are feeling well supported, but do pop in and say ‘Hi’ if you can help. The new appliances needed – seeking quotes, but should be sorted soon, thanks Geoff Britton. A Winter Warmers Combo Day with some delicious delights will be held soon, we will keep you up to date.
- Veggie Patch – Is going well, Kristy said they have planted some potatoes so hopefully they will be ready in around 4 months. Sales going well, thanks to everyone’s support.
- MOMPS – The Men of Melville Primary have been busy preparing for the Kids Camps, with some happening soon, so get in quick to secure your tickets! Click the date to purchase:
Year 3 - May 20-21
Pre Primary - May 27-28
Year 1 - June 10-11
- School Board – Welcomed a new Chair, Julia O'Neill and three new Board members, Michelle Testa, Tim McNaught and Liz Tropiano. Further developing the ‘Kids Matter’ approach and changing the thought processes of the Board so the meetings become more participatory. The yearly public meeting will be held 19th June at 7.30pm.
- Entertainment Books – Sales are going well, and books should be delivered around week 4. Get yours here buy here, or if you go direct to the website, don’t forget to nominate Melville PS.
- Cross-country breakfasts – More than 100 kids enjoyed a warm breakfast on the first day. All going very well, keep coming volunteers, you make it happen! And big thanks to Gayle Passmore for coordinating.
- Mother's Day special at Bakers Delight - order croissants for a Mothers’ day treat – the Myaree Bakers’ Delight store are offering $1 from every croissant to be donated to the school. Order forms in the store now or call 9317 6322.

Next meeting is Wed 7 June, 7.30pm in the office.

Thanks all.
P&C Exec

Melville Primary School
Parents and Citizens Association Inc.

70 Curtis Road, Melville WA 6156 T: (08) 9330 2255 F: (08) 9317 1274